

Not Happy Camper: A Memoir for the Rest of Us

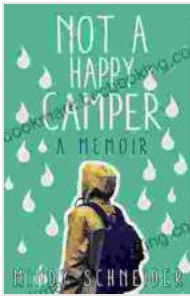

In her hilarious and heartwarming memoir, Not Happy Camper, Angie Abdou chronicles her misadventures as a reluctant camper. From her first ill-fated trip as a child to her adult attempts to rough it in the wilderness, Abdou's experiences are sure to resonate with anyone who has ever pitched a tent or roasted a marshmallow. With her trademark wit and self-deprecating humor, Abdou skewers the expectations of the camping lifestyle, offering a fresh and relatable perspective on the joys and challenges of spending time in nature.

"Not Happy Camper" is the perfect read for:

- Anyone who has ever been camping or considered going camping
- Fans of humorous and relatable memoirs
- People who appreciate a fresh perspective on the outdoors
