What makes Zits so funny?

Zits is funny because it's so relatable. Every teenager can identify with the characters in Zits: the awkward, the shy, the popular, and the geeky. Zits also pokes fun at the everyday problems of teenage life: acne, homework, parents, dating, and social media.

But Zits is more than just a funny comic strip. It's also a heartwarming and insightful look at the challenges and triumphs of teenage life. Zits shows that even though teenagers may be awkward and embarrassing at times, they're also full of potential and promise.

What's in Not Sparking Joy Zits Treasury?

Not Sparking Joy Zits Treasury is a 256-page hardcover book that collects the funniest and most relatable Zits comics from the past 25 years. The treasury also includes exclusive behind-the-scenes content from Jerry Scott and Jim Borgman.

Here's a sneak peek at some of the comics you'll find in Not Sparking Joy Zits Treasury:

Jeremy and Dorkman are two of the most popular characters in Zits. They're best friends and they're always getting into trouble. In this comic, they're playing video games and they're not very good at it.

Pierce and Heather are another popular couple in Zits. They're dating, but they're not always on the same page. In this comic, they're talking about their relationship and they're not sure if it's going to work out.

Coach Z is the football coach at Zits High School. He's a bit of a hothead and he's always arguing with the referee. In this comic, he's arguing with the referee about a call that went against his team.

Not Sparking Joy Zits Treasury is a hilarious and heartwarming look at the challenges and triumphs of teenage life. This treasury is a must-have for any fan of Zits or for anyone who has ever been a teenager.
