Bridgerton Prequels: The Rokesbys by Julia Quinn

Prepare to be swept away by the enchanting prequel to the beloved Bridgerton series, The Rokesbys by Julia Quinn. This captivating tale transports us to the world that shaped the future of the Bridgertons, uncovering the alluring romances and intriguing secrets that set the stage for their captivating journey.

A Glimpse into the Past

The Rokesbys delves into the lives of a remarkable family whose influence extends far beyond their time. As we journey back to the early 1800s, we witness the intertwining destinies of three captivating siblings: George, Anthony, and Edwina Rokesby.

George Rokesby, Earl of Manston

George is the enigmatic and irresistible heir to the Rokesby fortune. Known for his dashing charm and quick wit, he embarks on a whirlwind romance with Lady Sarah Pleinsworth, a strong-willed and independent woman who challenges his preconceived notions.

Anthony Rokesby

Anthony, the second son, is a brooding and enigmatic figure. Haunted by a tragic past, he struggles to find love and acceptance. However, a chance encounter with Lady Charlotte Bridgerton, a brilliant and spirited woman, sparks a flame within him.

Edwina Rokesby

Edwina, the youngest of the siblings, is a radiant and captivating beauty. Despite the constraints of society, she yearns for a love that will embrace her true spirit. As she navigates the treacherous waters of the marriage mart, she encounters Lord Philip Crane, a charming and ambitious man who threatens to unravel her dreams.

Love, Family, and Secrets

The Rokesbys weaves a rich tapestry of love, family, and secrets. Quinn's exceptional storytelling transports us to a world where passion and duty collide, where hearts are stolen and dreams are shattered.

As the Rokesby siblings navigate the complexities of Regency society, they confront their own fears, desires, and the inevitable consequences of their choices. Their journey will forever alter the destiny of the Bridgerton family and leave an indelible mark on the hearts of readers.
